The famous golden dishes. Grovie sent Katherine a set of beautiful golden dishes when they were dating, and then discovered she'd been dating someone else. He then wrote to her and told her that he hoped those dishes he'd just sent her "would arrive broken in a million pieces."

GEORGIAN HOTEL, ATHENS, GA
Completed in 1909, this 125-room hotel served as a gathering place for celebrations and meetings. Author Margaret Mitchell, Governors Eugene and Herman Talmadge, and Dr. Harmon W. Caldwell, former president of the University of Georgia, were among the guests of the Georgian Hotel. During World War II, nurses were housed on the second floor. Groves Howard Jr and Katherine Little were married here.

This signature is from Priscilla Sanders' will, dated 20 August 1807. Your 4th Great-Grandmother was born Priscilla Farrar. She first married Henry Howard, after his death she married Adams Sanders in NC, before coming to Oglethorpe County, GA sometime after 1799.

Groves Ambrose Howard, Jr.

The name 'Groves' or 'Grover' appears in many generations of Howards.

Your 6th Great-Grandfather William Heyward named one of his sons Groves Heyward (1697-1700). Your 5th GGrandfather William Howard named one of his sons Groves (1733-1807); your 4th GGrandfather Henry named one of his sons Groves.

Your 3rd GGrandfather, Abel, named two of his sons: Robert Groves Howard (your 2nd GGrandfather) and Groves Howard (1800-?). Your Grandfather and Father were both named Groves Ambrose Howard, and there are at least three other Groves Howard relatives in your family.

Anna Eliza Elingus Potter, my great grandmother, born 8-27-1808, Simpsons Bay, St. Croix, Virgin Islands, died in Madison Ga. Married Charles Wm/ Richter (probably in early 1830's, who was born 5-14-1807, St. Croix, Virgin Islands. They had 8 children, of which the first was my grandmother, Anna Maria Elingus Richter, b. Oct 9, 1836 St. Croix, died Sept 26, 1926. She was of English parantage, was niece of Bishop Potter, in whose home she was reared, educated & married to Chas. Wm. Richter. They lived in St. Croix until Insurrection of the negroes against the whites. Escaped on an English Man of War & came to America with their first child, a daughter of 6 mo. The baby (my grandmother, was baptised by Chaplain to Queen Victoria, on the ship. They were headed toward Tenn. by stagecoach, but had to get off in Madison Tenn. as end of line, & also because Anna was pregnant with their 2nd child. So they settled there in 1838, & Chas. went into the jewelry business. (Compiled by Frances Byron c. 1980 by 70-year old Frances Pinckney Alston; from McCullough200_1 tree, Ancestry.com)

On Thursday morning of last week, Mrs Martha Lumpkin, aged 73 years, wife of Mr Joe Lumpkin, known as Long Joe Lumpkin, died at their home near Salem Church. It seems there was no other cause of her death other than the general breaking down of her system, she having been long feeble. She was the oldest member of Salem Church, to which she had belonged for 50 years.

Her funeral was preached by Dr J G Gibson on Thursday evening and her remains laid away in the yard of the church she loved so well.

[Oglethorpe Echo, Friday, January 6, 1886]

Not much is known about Martha, her parents may have been John Hawkins and Nancy Smith, and her middle name may have been "Washington." More discoveries about your 2nd GGrandmother still await.

Dr. George Little was an 1883 graduate of the Eclectic Medical Institute in Cincinnati, Ohio whose manifesto declared: "Our college will be strictly what its name indicates - Eclectic - excluding all such medicines and such remedies as, 'under the ordinary circumstances of their judicious use, are liable to produce evil consequences or endanger the future health of the patient.'"

Dr. Little was widely known over this section as a physician, having practiced medicine with great success for a number of years. [Excerpt from Dr. George Little's obituary]
